

WOMEN IN CONSERVATION LEADERSHIP™

Draft 2020 Virtual Summit Agenda

Day 1 – October 13, 2020

11:00a – 11:45a ET	Opening and Land acknowledgement
11:45a – 12:00p ET	Break
12:00p – 1:00p ET	Keynote – Dr. Rae Wynn Grant Our keynote speaker will share her journey and how she became a pre-eminent conservation scientist, National Geographic Society Fellow and world-renowned ecologist.
1:00p – 2:00p ET	Break
2:00p – 2:30p ET	Virtual Exhibitor and Sponsor Booths
2:30p – 3:30p ET	Concurrent Breakout Sessions Section 1
3:30p – 4:00p ET	Break
4:00p – 5:00p ET	Concurrent Breakout Sessions Section 2
5:30p – 6:30p ET	Weaving Connection Happy Hour

Day 2 – October 14, 2020

11:00a – 11:30a ET	Opening
11:30a – 12:30p ET	General Session - Racism and the Environmental Movement: A Reckoning of Past Wrongs
12:30p – 1:30p ET	Break
1:30p – 2:45p ET	General Session – Racism and the Environmental Movement: Current Challenges and Lessons Learned A panel conversation on racism in the modern environmental movement and a vision for anti-racist conservation.
2:45p – 3:00p ET	Break
3:00p – 4:30p ET	Optional Racial Identity Groups or Affinity Group breakouts
5:30p – 6:30p ET	Hold for social/networking activity

Day 3 - October 15, 2020

11:00a – 11:45a ET	Opening
11:45a – 1:00p ET	General Session – Feminism and Climate Change Join us for a conversation with Dr. Ayana Johnson, Dr. Katharine Wilkinson, and several of the inspiring contributors to their forthcoming book “All We Can Save”. These women will share their stories and paint a picture of the climate movement more feminine and feminist leadership.
1:00p – 2:00p ET	Break
2:00p – 3:00p ET	Concurrent Breakout Sessions Section 3
3:00p - 3:30p ET	Break
3:30p – 5:00p ET	Closing Session – Weaving Change Through Action Using an ideation model, participants will be invited to generate ideas to catalyze change within themselves as leaders, in their communities, and as part of WCL. What is next? What actions are we willing to take, especially as it relates to intersectionality of conservation and social equity and justice? What support do we need in order to transform ourselves and conservation?